

Management of chylous fistula using the fibrin adhesive set.

Authors: Velegrakis GA, Prokopakis EP, Papadakis CE, Bizakis JG, Kyrmizakis DE, Helidonis ES

Publication Date: 1998

Abstract:

Chylous fistula complicates 1.1% of all radical neck dissections, and 2.4% of left-sided dissections. The standard treatment of established chylous leak in the reported cases is a pressure dressing applied to the lower neck. Here we present a case of chylous fistula, where conservative methods failed to cope with this complication. The additional application of a fibrin adhesive set was a successful modality of treatment.