

Cartilage chips synthesized with fibrin glue in rhinoplasty.

Authors: Fontana A., Muti E., Cicerale D., Rizzotti M.

Publication Date: 1991

Abstract:

A new type of cartilage graft that is synthesized from cartilage fragments minced by our instrument and mixed with fibrin glue is described. This new material is useful when particular grafts are required in primary or secondary rhinoplasty.