

Closure of subarachnoid-pleural fistulae with fibrin sealant.

Authors: Morgan J.A.

Publication Date: 1988

Abstract:

Subarachnoid-pleural fistulae are rare and require closure if conservative therapy has failed. A simple and effective method is described using a pleural graft sealed with fibrin glue. The closure is immediate and long lasting.