

Neurovascular Island flap by the disconnecting-reconnecting technique.

Authors: Adani R., Pancaldi G., Castagnetti C., Zanasi S., Squarzina P.B.

Publication Date: 1990

Abstract:

The authors report nine cases of hetero-digital neurovascular island flaps raised by the 'disconnecting-reconnecting' technique for defects of the tactile and of the thumb. At an average follow-up of 25 months, all cases had good restoration of sensibility without any 'double sensibility' phenomenon and patients regained good dexterity. No tender neuromata developed and donor site complications were not troublesome.